Dear Mr. Hemler,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of St. Michael the Archangel High School, we wish to thank CAINA for the outstanding series of presentations you made during Lent this year. Your 'Faith and the Big Questions' presentations were well received by many parishioners from Fredericksburg area Catholic parishes and we are delighted to have hosted these informative programs. Your faithfulness to the magisterium and church doctrine in an informative and entertaining way was like a breath of fresh air and re-kindled a desire to continue exploring the rich treasury of Catholic apologetic materials in many of those who participated.

CAINA's sound educational ministry in support of the faith of the Catholic Church is an important contribution in a time when Catholic morals and values are increasingly demeaned and ridiculed by secular society.

Renovate animos! Fervet opus! Opus opificem probat. (Renew your courage! The work progresses! It's what we accomplish that counts.)

Many thanks for your valuable contribution to St. Michael's mission of sharing our faith through education.

Faithfully,

Hugh R. Brown
