RE: Letter of Recommendation for Steve Hemler and CAINA

This letter is to applaud and recommend Steve Hemler and his Catholic Apologetics Institute of North American (CAINA) programs. I have personally attended his series on "Faith and the Big Questions" which I found to be not only very interesting, but also to be faith strengthening.

I recommend to anyone who may doubt the existence of God to watch his presentations. If you cannot attend one "live", go to CAINAWEB.ORG and view online. Other presentations on the need to attend church and why God allows evil, pain, and suffering are also explained. Everyone will learn something regardless of your past beliefs or knowledge. I urge you to check it out!
