

FAITH AND THE BIG QUESTIONS

CATHOLIC APOLOGETICS PROGRAM

Faith and the Big Questions is a Catholic apologetics series for youth and adults presented by Steve Hemler, President of the Catholic Apologetics Institute of North America (CAINA). This program helps prepare 7th-12th grade and college students for challenges to their faith that they are facing or will likely face in the future, especially when in college.

The following sessions are timed for middle/high school classes, as well as college campus ministry after-dinner talks and parish youth ministry meetings:

- 1. God and Science: Where Does the Evidence Lead?
- 2. Which is True: Creation, Evolution, or Both?
- 3. Near-Death Experiences: Evidence of the Soul?
- 4. Is Jesus Truly the Son of God Who Really Rose from the Dead?
- 5. How Are We Saved? The Catholic View of Salvation
- 6. Why Go to Church? Being “Spiritual” Is Not Enough
- 7. Why Would a Loving God Allow Evil, Pain, and Suffering?

Given the atheistic and secular worldview often promoted by the media and academic/scientific establishment, the need to strengthen the faith of Catholics and equip them to better explain and share our faith has never been greater. We are confident that the students in your school, parish, or group will appreciate CAINA’s informative and interesting sessions as an opportunity to dispel doubts, strengthen faith, and develop persuasive reasons for belief, valuable for sharing with friends and others who may question the existence of God, Jesus’ divinity, the need to attend Mass, etc.

These custom-developed sessions feature modern multimedia presentations (Microsoft PowerPoint with embedded video clips) and optional personal reflection/small group discussion activities for youth.
